

CLIFF LINK JOINS INTELLICHECK MOBILISA AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT FOR HOMELAND SECURITY SOLUTIONS

Experienced Executive with Over 35 Year Experience in Law Enforcement and Homeland Security

PORT TOWNSEND, WA – September 2, 2010 – Intellicheck Mobilisa, Inc. (NYSE Amex: IDN), a global leader in access control and wireless security systems, has appointed Cliff Link as Senior Vice President overseeing business development opportunities with the Department of Homeland Security.

"I am very excited that Cliff has agreed to join our team," commented Dr. Nelson Ludlow, CEO. "I've known Cliff for many years, both personally as well as professionally, and I know he will bring a tremendous amount of knowledge and energy to the company, as we continue to pursue opportunities with the Department of Homeland Security."

Mr. Link retired from federal service as an Assistant Director after a career as a Federal Special Agent and Executive with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS). During his career, he conducted and led investigations and operations in law enforcement, counter terrorism and counter intelligence, literally around the globe. His career included duties across the United States as well as overseas in Europe, the Far East, and the Middle East, including IRAQ.

After the bombing of the USS Cole, and later the events of 9-11, he was assigned to the Secretary of the Navy's Anti-Terrorism Task Force, leading the Intelligence and Situational Awareness Working Group. He was also a member of the implementation team for the development of the President's National Strategy for Maritime Security.

Mr. Link co-authored several publications to include: "Risk Assessment In The Transportation Supply Chain: Model For Personnel Security And Risk Management", "A Human Capital Strategy In The Federal Government: Managing A Workforce Committed To National Safety And Security In A Net Centric Environment", and "Operational Performance And Impact Assessment For The United States Marshals Service: Increasing Operational Impact In Support Of Public Safety".

"I look forward to working with Dr. Ludlow, and the rest of the Senior Management team, in penetrating other markets within the Department of Homeland Security, as well as expanding current client bases such as Department of Defense, Department of Justice, the Intelligence Community, State and Local Governments and the Commercial Sector," said Cliff Link.

Mr. Link was most recently Vice President for Business Development at 21st Century Systems Inc., a company focused on decision support software. Previously, Mr. Link was with Deloitte Consulting, LLP, where he worked in the Federal, Strategy and Operations Practice. His focus was providing consulting services to Department of Homeland Security, Department of Justice, and Department of the Navy clients. He also held a position in Deloitte's Center for Network Innovation. Noteworthy, Mr. Link was the Deloitte Program Manager for TSA's Transportation Worker Identification Credential (TWIC).

"He was also the lead on Deloitte's capture team for TSA's Secure Flight contract, a 9/11 Commission recommendation and TSA initiative designed to to enhance the security of domestic and international commercial air travel through the use of improved watch list matching."
